

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, McKenzie Haley of Winner was named Miss Rodeo America in Las Vegas, Nevada, on December 4, 2010; and,

Whereas, McKenzie will travel more than 100,000 miles during her reign representing Miss Rodeo America, the Professional Rodeo Cowboy's Association, and the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, McKenzie is a student at Black Hills State University pursuing a degree in elementary education with plans to eventually obtain a masters degree in school psychology; and,

Whereas, McKenzie is a shining example of what you can achieve if you pursue your dreams and has represented herself and the state of South Dakota in a way that is extraordinary; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to congratulate McKenzie for her dedication, passion, and willingness to represent the people of this great state as Miss Rodeo America:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 30, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join with her family and friends to thank her for her service.

MCKENZIE HALEY DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.
